Publication date: 2007

The hamsterwheel project, devised in Vienna by Urs Fischer and Franz West, was inaugurated at the 52nd Venice Biennale on 7th of June 2007. It took on a new dimension at the 7th printemps de septembre show in Toulouse from 21st September to 14th October 2007. Many historians, art critics, gallery owners and leading figures of the contemporary art world have had a hand in this project.
